Most Innovative Products Contest at World of Concrete Announces Winners

Washington, D.C. February 24, 2009— The votes are in, and winners are selected for the 2009 Most Innovative Products (MIP) contest.

This seventh annual event, sponsored by CONCRETE & MASONRY CONSTRUCTION PRODUCTS, is held each year at the World of Concrete. The MIP contest showcases many of the new products being exhibited at World of Concrete and gives show attendees a chance to vote for the products they believe are the most innovative. A panel of industry experts also reviews the products in terms of the innovation they bring to the industry.

Winners will be published in the April/May 2009 issue of CONCRETE & MASONRY CONSTRUCTION PRODUCTS, as well as in post-show issues of CONCRETE CONSTRUCTION, MASONRY CONSTRUCTION, and THE CONCRETE PRODUCER; and online at CONCRETE CONSTRUCTION Online, MASONRY CONSTRUCTION Online and THE CONCRETE PRODUCER Online.

This year's products were grouped into 14 categories. Information about each entry is available online at www.mip2009.com.
